

HOW MANY REMEMBER?

This was the "Weir Cook Municipal Airport" named for Colonel Harvey Weir Cook on March 28, 1944 after he had lost his life while flying with the Army Air Corps in New Caledonia during WW II.

Colonel Cook was a WW I flying Ace in Captain Eddie Rickenbacker's famous "Hat in the Ring," 94 Aero Squadron with seven victories. He received the Distinguished Flying Cross twice.

